FDWs meet with LD representatives:

'Give wage hike, decent food'

A CALL. Migrant domestic workers in Hong Kong are seeking a minimum allowable wage of $5,500, and food allowance of $2,500.

By Cheryl M. Arcibal

FOREIGN domestic workers expressed their dissatisfaction over the recent meeting they had with representatives of the Labour Department as they sought to hike their wage and improve their working conditions in Hong Kong.

Meanwhile, Philippine diplomats also pressed the Hong Kong government to provide mandatory food allowance to Filipino domestic workers.

Speaking to journalists after the consultation meeting held on Aug. 28, Eni Lest-ari, spokeswoman of the Asian Migrants' Coordinating Body, said the LD officials neither made any commitments nor gave suggestions to improve the lot of more than 360,000 foreign domestic workers in the territory.

Foreign domestic workers are seeking to increase their minimum allowable wage to $5,500 from the present $4,310 and their food allowance to $2,500 from the present $1,037.

Lestari said the 12 representatives from

By Cheryl M. Arcibal

PHILIPPINE authorities have confirmed that the owner of the shuttered Emry's Employment Agency had left Hong Kong in 2016.

"Post (Philippine Consulate General) informed (Labour Department) that Ms. Ester Ylagan flew to Manila sometime in August 2016 as confirmed by the relevant government authorities in the Philippines," a report by the PCG to the Department of Foreign Affairs about the latest Technical Working Group meeting held on July 19.

The Labour Department, meanwhile, said it is "continuously liaising with Hong Kong Police and Department of Justice for speedy trial and investigation," the report added.

Meanwhile, 78 Filipino domestic workers who filed a claim against Ylagan at the Small Claims Tribunal would need to exhaust all means to locate the defendant's whereabouts. A Tribunal adjudicator on Aug. 28 gave the claimants two choices to proceed with the cases.

One is to effect an out-of-jurisdiction service, whereby they would need to provide the court with Ylagan's whereabouts so it could acquire rule on their claims, and the other is to temporarily withdraw the case and when Ylagan is located, to re-

Edwina Antonio of the Mission for Migrant Workers told Hong Kong News the claimants chose the first option, and would be coordinating with both the Philippine and Hong Kong government to locate Ylagan.

The adjudicator adjourned the hearing on the claims to Nov. 28.

"The Philippine Consulate has filed four illegal recruitment cases against Ylagan in the Philippines, and here, the Hong Kong Police issued an order against Ylagan that when she comes back here, she would be arrested," Antonio said.

She added some 100 Filipino domestic workers filed a complaint against Ylagan, and the police investigation was continuing.

Ylagan had failed to appear in any court proceedings against her and Emry's filed by complainants and the LD, respectively.

Representatives from the LD on July 17

The Small Claims Tribunal at the West Kowloon Law Courts

were left asking people in the gallery of Court at the Eastern Magistrates' Courts to inquire whether they were representing Ylagan after the defendant could not be found.

The LD then asked the court to adjourn the cases to Oct. 20 to allow another personal service of summons to Ylagan.

Outside the court, LD prosecutor Gary Tsang said they would be coordinating with the Philippine Consulate to locate Ylagan after Antonio told him about the refund cases pending against the defendant at the Small Claims Tribunal and the District Court.

On Jan. 20, Ylagan was also a no-show at the Eastern Magistrates' Courts for the hearing of 21 criminal cases filed against her.

Ylagan was charged with 21 counts of receiving payment other than the prescribed commission, but she sent no representative or lawyer to appear in court.

Emry's was said to be the biggest provider of Filipino domestic helpers in Hong Kong.

Ylagan had insisted to officials of the Philippine Overseas Labor Office that she did not intend to dupe the jobseekers and promised that she would refund the applicants. Emry's office in World Wide House in Central has been shuttered since June 2016.

Pinay jailed for taking face masks

By Ally Constantino

SHE was originally given a suspended sentence, but then she committed two theft offenses and she ended up with about three months in jail.

Eastern Magistracy Acting Principal

Magistrate So wai-tak on August 18 sentenced L.L. Retrita to four weeks in prison after she pleaded guilty to two theft charges.

The prosecution alleged that 42-year-old Retrita, with a Filipino male companion, stole 12 boxes of facial masks worth $1,036; and five boxes of facial masks worth $315 from a 7-11 convenience store on King's Road in North Point on July 24. The items were not recovered.

The prosecution said that when 7-11 manager Yiu K.N. was checking the store's stock at 9:13 a.m. on July 24, she found that 12 boxes of facial masks were missing from the display rack. Upon checking the CCTV, she saw Retrita and her co-defendant M.A. Baybay, 28, took the items at 2:15 a.m. on that day without paying for them.

Meanwhile, at 1:23 p.m. manager S.T.

Wong at another 7-11 - in Kam Hong Street, North Point - found that five boxes of facial masks were missing.

Upon checking the CCTV footage, it was revealed that Retrita and her co-defendant took the items without paying for them.

On July 27, police officers arrested Retrita and Baybay.

Under caution, Baybay, who had faced other theft cases at the Eastern Magistracy, admitted to committing the offenses, while Retrita remained silent.

A search on Retrita's house found a white raincoat, which she was wearing when she and Baybay took the items.

Mitigating, Retrita's duty lawyer said the defendant was "very remorseful" and that the offenses were not pre-meditated.

"She is willing to make compensation to the victims four weeks from release from prison," the duty lawyer said, while the defendant was in the dock during the court proceedings.

The duty lawyer also said the defendant, who is a recognizance holder, has a five-year-old son in Hong Kong.

"She wants to be able to take care of her son soon," the duty lawyer said.

Judge So, however, noted that the defendant had a suspended sentence of two months for 18 months owing to breach of condition of stay.

Judge So said the starting point of jail term for the two theft charges was six weeks, but reduced it to four weeks following Retrita's guilty plea.

But the magistrate said he would be activating the suspended sentence on Retrita, ordering the defendant be jailed two months and four weeks.

Two months for FDH for scalding boy

By Ally Constantino

A West Kowloon court found a 35-year-old Filipino domestic helper guilty of hurting her then six-year-old ward by putting a heated hair dryer to the child's buttocks.

Judge June Cheung Tin-ngan on Aug.

18 sentenced J.A. Evangelista to two months in prison after finding her guilty of ill-treatment case.

She said that while there were flaws in the testimony of the boy that he gave in court, she did not consider these flaws as substantial to affect his credibility and reliability.

The magistrate added that the boy gave clear answers and was adamant that he was deliberately scalded by the defendant by pressing the heated nozzle of the hair dryer to his buttocks.

Judge Cheung also noted that among the evidence presented was a medical report indicating that there were two patches of red marks on the boy's buttocks.

Likewise, she also rejected the defendant's evidence, saying the contact of the heated dryer to the boy's buttocks was brief as she noted the defendant did not tell the police about what the Filipina domestic helper said had happened.

The judge said Evangelista was "fabricating" this part of the story.

The magistrate said that with the difficult job of being a helper, it would have been natural for the defendant to lose her temper as the boy was jumping and dancing around while being given a bath.

In mitigation, Evangelista's duty lawyer said the defendant was of clear record, and that what took place was a "one-off incident".

Since losing her job in February, Evangelista had been staying at an NGO shelter.

"She would not be able to apply for future domestic helper job in Hong Kong. The greatest punishment is not being able to work and lose her impeccable record. The case was not too serious," the duty lawyer said.

But Judge Cheung said the victim was the boy who was entrusted to the care of the defendant and an immediate custodial sentence was inevitable. She added that the boy still suffered an injury and what happened was unacceptable.

In her testimony in court on Aug. 1, Evangelista said that while giving the boy a bath, the boy slipped and fell while she held the hair dryer. The hair dryer then touched the hip or the buttock area of the boy.

"The boy cried, and then he stood up. I looked at his body, but I did not see any mark. I asked him if he was hurt, but did not say anything," Evangelista told the court through an Ilocano-English interpreter.

Asked by her duty lawyer how she would describe the contact, the defendant said it was accidental.

Stricter process for China-bound FDHs

By Cheryl M. Arcibal

THE Hong Kong Immigration Department vowed to be more strict before allowing a foreign domestic helper to leave the city to join their employers for holidays in China.

At the July 19 Technical Working Group meeting between Philippine and Hong Kong officials, the ImmD said the initiative would be implemented to "avoid the practice of some employers in bringing their helpers to China in the guise of joining them for vacation but actually forcing the FDHs to work."

The ImmD, however, said that while they implement this, they could not "outrightly" bar FDHs from leaving for China.

Sources from the PCG said ImmD officials would be asking more questions to FDHs accompanying their employers to China.

The statement came days before 28-year-old Filipino domestic helper Lorain Asuncion reportedly fell down to her death on July 24 while in Shenzhen with her employers.

A source from the Philippine Consulate said the employers of Asuncion were arrested by police and were also released on bail.

The source said the case was being investigated as suspected human trafficking. Asuncion's aunt, the official said, turned over to the police records of WhatsApp conversations with her niece.

In a previous TWG meeting held in April, the ImmD committed to investigate complaints against employers who bring their Filipino helpers out of Hong Kong and forcing them to work.

The statement came after officials of the PCG and the Philippine Overseas Labor Office requested the ImmD to comment on the practice of some employers bringing their FDHs overseas and making them work there.

Philippine officials also raised the concern about FDHs traveling to China, and meeting an accident there, but had no medical insurance.

"The (ImmD)...encouraged FDHs to make a report for proper investigation. (ImmD) added that the FDHs can refuse their employer citing prohibitions under Hong Kong law," the report said.

The Labour Department, meanwhile,

Immigration Tower (By Chawen - Own work, CC BY-SA 3.0, <https://commons.wikimedia.org/w/index.php?curid=4075962>) would still be given one hour during the Post Arrival Orientation Seminars to discuss the rights and obligations of FDHs under the Hong Kong labor law to the newly-arrived migrant workers.

Court case

Hong Kong authorities had sued two employers and an official of an employment agency for allegedly taking a Filipina to the mainland and making her work there.

R. Ubaldo gave her testimony at a Kowloon City Courts on July 18-20 in the conspiracy to defraud trial of defendants of employers S.W. Wong, and Z.Huang, and employment agent C.K. Chan.

The witness said she signed a contract on Apr. 15, 2015 to work as the domestic helper of Wong. The contract stated the helper would, among others, take care of the employer's daughter and son, and they would reside in an address in Hung Hom.

Ubaldo said it was Huang who interviewed her, and she was informed by Chan that the employer liked her.

After signing the contract, and staying in Macau while waiting for the ImmD to approve her new visa, Ubaldo said that on June 11, 2015, she started working in the address stated in her contract.

She said Wong did not reside at the address and it was Huang who gave her instructions and paid her salary. The witness added that Huang paid her in cash and did not issue any receipts.

The two children that she took care of, she added, were also children of Huang instead of Wong's.

In her contract, Ubaldo said, it was stated that the children were Wong's.

In August 2015, Ubaldo said she was informed by Huang that they were going to China, and they would have a holiday there.

On Aug. 17, 2015, she, Wong and Huang's daughter went to apply for a visa so Ubaldo could enter the mainland.

Looking at her contract, Ubaldo said she asked if the name that was there was Wong's, and the latter confirmed that it was her name.

After learning of this, Ubaldo said she inquired from Chan if this was legal, and the agent allegedly said "no problem because they're sisters."

Ten days later, Ubaldo, along with Huang, and her children left Hong Kong for Guangzhou.

In Guangzhou, the Filipina said she was made to work at the house. She cleaned the house, went to the market, and cooked dishes. She also took Huang's children to some exercise classes. In China, Ubaldo said, Huang took her passport.

"I did not like it because I was afraid that if something happened to me in China, how could they identify my body?" the Filipina told the court through an Ilocano interpreter.

She also said she got in touch with Chan to inform him that Huang took her passport.

"I was scared. If something happened to me, how would they identify me? Another thing was that she (Huang) was not my employer," Ubaldo said.

Chan assured her that her passport would be returned to her.

As her visa was set to expire, she then returned to Hong Kong on Sept. 25, 2015. After returning to Hong Kong, Ubaldo was told by Wong and Chan that she would have to go back to China to serve Huang's family.

When she refused, she was terminated.

Owing to this, Ubaldo said she went to the Philippine Consulate for consultation.

On Sept. 30, the Filipina went to the ImmD to file a complaint against Wong, Chan, and Huang.

Under cross-examination, Ubaldo denied she still owed some money to Chan. She added she was made to take a loan from a finance company, but the money was used to pay for her boarding fees and other charges to Chan.

The prosecution also presented an Immigration officer, who said that only a Hong Kong resident and not someone from the mainland would be allowed to hire a foreign domestic helper in Hong Kong.

The witness, however, conceded that employers were not restricted from having their relatives or even friends stay in their residence and let their domestic helper serve them as well.

After the prosecution's case, Kowloon Deputy Judge Andrew Ma said he found there was a case to answer against each of the three defendants.

He adjourned the case for the defense's rebuttal to Sept. 14.

The reason behind Pinay naging confident na tumabi kahit kanino

Matagal nang panahon daw na iniinda ni Jenny Villoria ng Hong Kong, dry at ang magaspang niyang balat. Makurot o masugatan lang siya ng konti ay naging peklat na ito. Nahihya na rin si Jenny na tumabi sa iba dahil sa gaspang daw ng kanyang balat.

Marami na siyang nasubukan na whitening creams para lamang malunasan ang mga peklat ngunit hindi naging epektibo. Minsan ay nagkita sila ng kaibigan at nabanggit ni Jenny ang problema. Iminungkahi nito ang upgraded Dream Love 1000 5 in 1 body essence lotion, gawa sa England na binibili daw mula sa Victory Supermarket sa halagang HK$98 lamang. Dati daw na marami itong taghiyawat at mataba pa ngunit nang mabasa daw sa pahayagan ang patungkol sa lotion ay bumili ito at naging epektibo dito.

Nakumbinse si Jenny kaya bumili ito sa nasabing shop at pag-uwi niya ng bahay, naligo, ipinahid ang lotion sa buong katawan at mukha ayon sa nabasa niya sa instruction sheet. Makalipas ang ilang oras ay pinapakiramdaman daw ni Jenny kung may magiging epekto ito sa kanyang balat dahil madali siyang magka-allergy. Pero natuwa siya nang malamang wala itong halong mercury kaya walang dahilan para mangamba sa allergy.

Laking gulat ni Jenny na hindi lang pala ang balat ang masolusyonan ng lotion. Bukod sa nabawasan ang mga peklat ay nawala ang gaspang at pagka-dry ng balat. Nabawasan ng 2 inches ang taba sa kanyang baywang habang 1 ½ inches naman ang nabawas na taba sa kanyang hita sa loob ng ilang linggo na pagpapahid niya.

Ngayon kahit kanino daw madikit ay hindi na siya nahihya dahil unti-unti nang kuminis ang kanyang balat. Hindi na rin niya problema ang pagiging dry at magaspang ng kanyang balat. Nalaman pa na gamit din daw ito ng mga sikat na celebrities.

'Do not be Duterte fanatics'

By Ally Constantino

"HINDI ito usaping pro-Duterte o pro-Aquino. Ito ay usapang para sa mahirap, para sa mga Pilipino," said Eman Villanueva, Bayan Hongkong & Macau chairperson.

Migrant Filipino workers on Aug. 24 picketed the Philippine Consulate to condemn the killing of a 17-year-old son of an overseas Filipino worker in an anti-drug operation in Caloocan City.

The picket turned a little tense when some Filipinos who were about to go in the PCG yelled back to the activists that they would still support President Duterte.

This prompted Villanueva to reply that Filipinos should not turn fanatic and turn a blind eye on the human rights violations of the anti-drug operation. The United Filipinos-Migrante-HK led the Filipinos in holding the picket at the PCG.

"We are here because we fear for the lives of our families, friends, fellow Filipinos. The innocent lives brutally taken are enough proof that anyone has to fear the almost-nightly raids by the police.

"The war on drugs of the Duterte government has given the blanket authority to the police to murder anyone arbitrarily and with impunity," Unifil-Migrante-HK chairperson Dolores Balladares said.

Bayan, meanwhile, in a statement posted on its Facebook page said the death of Kian Loyd delos Santos should lead OFWs who supported President Duterte to reflect on the flaws of blindly following Duterte and his policies.

"The drug war implemented by a rotten and corrupt system and framed on murdering with impunity has also claimed family members of OFWs including innocent ones like Delos Santos.

"While the drug war remains on a murderous streak and not on resolving the causes that enable the drug problem, our people including our loved ones will not be secure," said Villanueva.

Reports said Delos Santos was closing their shop when he was dragged by police officers. The officers then allegedly gave him a gun. The boy asked the police what he would do with the gun, the police told him to run. In a CCTV camera footage, Delos Santos was seen being dragged away by plainclothes police officers. His body was found with the illegal drug and a gun, none of which belonged to him, his family said.

"Imagine the heartache of going home to your son's funeral, savagely killed because he was in the wrong place at the wrong time...this is the stuff of nightmares," said Villanueva.

The group also urged the government to prosecute the police officers involved in the killing of the Delos Santos.

"But President Duterte should be viewed as equally guilty. His war on drugs has left a generation of families mourning for unnatural deaths; deaths that could have been avoided [had] drug use [been] viewed as an issue covered by several factors, including the systemic poverty these families are mired in," Villanueva said.

Presidential Spokesperson Ernesto Abella said the incident was "isolated" as he added Duterte would not tolerate police abuses.

"He will defend the police in their carrying out of duties. However, he will also not tolerate any abuse and breaches of the law," Abella added.

Duterte, meanwhile, has met with the parents of Delos Santos, and vowed to prosecute those who were behind their son's death.

Morales to replace Catalla in HK

By Ally Constantino

CONSUL-General Bernardita Catala, who is set to assume her new post as Philippine ambassador to Lebanon, might leave Hong Kong in October.

Catala on Aug. 30 told Hong Kong News that she is waiting for her assignment from the Department of Foreign Affairs office in Manila before proceeding to Beirut.

Catala will be replaced by Philippine Ambassador to Singapore Antonio Morales as the head of the PCG here.

Catala has been confirmed as Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Republic of the Philippines to the Lebanese Republic by the powerful Commission on Appointments in May.

Meanwhile, Vice Consul Alex Vallespin will leave his Hong Kong post on Sept. 16 and will be transferred to Guam.

Vallespin's replacement, who has yet to be named, is scheduled to arrive next year.

Vallespin said the DFA informed him that his replacement could come in the first quarter of 2018.

CSC eyes HK exam next year

By Ally Constantino

A Civil Service exams might be held in Hong Kong in February.

Labor Attache Jalilo dela Torre said the Civil Service Commission is looking to hold the exams here next year.

Meanwhile, the Filipino Nurses' Association is also set to meet with the Nursing Board on Sept. 5 for the holding of the nursing and midwifery licensure examinations here in Hong Kong, he said.

More than 460 have registered here to take the Licensure Examinations for Teachers on Sept. 24, Dela Torre said.

He said that after the registration closed on Aug. 20, registered LET applicants were 464, of whom 245 would be taking the exams for secondary teachers; and 219 would be taking the exams for elementary teachers.

The LET would be held on Sept. 24 at the Delia Memorial School Hip Wo in Kwun Tong.

Meanwhile, the POLO chief said they were set to choose between the Sunlight Tower - located on Queen's Road - and Mass Mutual Tower - located on Lockhart Road - as the location for their new office premises.

The POLO, which is presently located at the Admiralty Centre, is set to move to its new office in December.

Tila nauupos na kandila ang naramdaman ng Pinay

Kapana-panabik na makulay na relasyon nabuo dahil sa birthday gift na upgraded version ng Dream Love 1000 seksuwal na pabango, gawa sa England. Matagal na daw crush ni Angeline Magsayo ng TaiPo ang kapitbahay nilang hardinero. Minsan habang siya daw ay magtatapon ng basura, napansin niyang may kausap sa phone ang hardinero at nakasimangot ito kaya mabilis siyang lumisan. Happy na daw siyang masilayan ito tuwing umaga pagkatapos niyang magpasyal nang mga alagang aso.

Tinawagan niya ang tiyahin at sinabing hindi na daw niya kayang maglihim dito kaya ikinuwento ang tungkol sa crush niya. Nasabi ng tiyahin na sa sunod na day off ay bumili ng Dream Love 1000 seksuwal perfume mula sa Aurora Mart sa central na nagkakahalaga ng HK$88 lamang. Gamit daw ng tiyahin ang nasabing pabango at proven effective sa asawa nito na dating maloko sa babae at tumino mula ng gumamit nito.

Sinunod ang payo ng tiyahin at kinabukasan Lunes ng umaga ay nagpasyal siya ng mga alagang aso. Napansin niya ang hardinero na nasa labas malapit sa basurahan kung saan itatapon niya ang dumi ng mga aso. Pagkatalikod daw niya ay nagsalita ito, sinabing "Miss ang bango mo naman, napangiti siya at nagpasalamat." Lumapit daw ito at nagpakilala sabay hawak ng mahigpit sa kamay niya na tila mauupos siya na kandila sa sobrang titig nito sa kaniya. Doon nagsimula ang kanilang pagiging magkaibigan. Nasambit sa sarili na thank u auntie at sa Dream Love 1000.

FDH returns stolen cash, still goes to jail

By Ally Constantino

SHE returned the $2,860 that she admitted to have stolen from her employer, but she was still sent to jail.

Magistrate Kelly Shui on Aug. 28 sentenced J. Tuppil to six months in prison, but discounted it to three months after her guilty plea and returning the money to her employer. The defendant paid the amount after her brother came to Hong Kong on Aug. 27, and brought the money.

Tuppil was originally scheduled to pay the amount on Aug. 25, but the money was not wired, and her brother had to come to Hong Kong to bring it himself.

The judge, who was then presiding over Court 1 at the Tuen Mun magistracy was Magistrate Ivy Chui Yee-mei, who told Tuppil that even if she would be able to pay back the amount that she took from her employer, a custodial sentence could still be imposed on her.

Coming back to court in the morning of

Aug. 28, the defendant said she was able to pay the money through the court.

However, she was still sent to jail by Judge Shui, noting that the offense was serious because it was a breach of trust.

The defendant was hired by her employer in January 2016. In recent months, however, the employer surnamed Fan, noticed that some money was missing from the safe in her bedroom. Owing to this, the employer then installed a CCTV.

At about 10:30 p.m. on Aug. 10, the employer checked the items in the safe, and found nothing was missing.

Four days after, she found that Japanese yen notes were missing, and upon checking the CCTV footage, she saw Tuppil at about 11:12 a.m. on Aug. 11 taking the safe's key in the bedroom.

The helper then opened the safe and stole four 10,000 Japanese yen notes.

The employer then reported the case to the police.

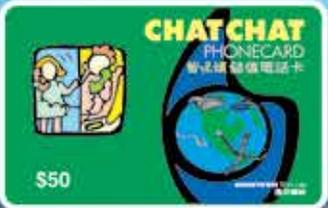

Upon arrest, the defendant initially remained silent.

In the presence of a Tagalog interpreter, however, the defendant admitted to taking the bank notes "out of greed" and she had exchanged them to Hong Kong bank notes.

FDWs groups, and charity organizations presented studies to the LD representatives in a bid to convince them to define what suitable food and accommodation are for the domestic workers. While the LD representatives listened to them, they refused to commit to issue regulations about food and accommodations, Lestari said.

"If the employer does not want to provide money for the domestic worker's food, then there should at least be a regulation of what is decent food because every person is different.

"It's not that Hong Kong employers are not kind, it's just that some of them do not think about this and most of them spend their time outside, and the domestic workers are always inside the home and so there is no communication," Lestari said.

As for accommodation, she said the LD should ban sleeping places for FDWs such as cupboards, rooftops, toilets, and kitchens.

"The suitable accommodation is not specified, so even if a worker shares a room with the daughter of the employer, and the worker sleeps on the floor, that's not a violation of the contract," Lestari said. She said a big rally will be held by the FDWs on Sept. 3 from Chater Road to the LD office in Central.

Shiella Grace Estrada, secretary of the Federation of Asian Domestic Workers Union, said the increase in their wage and food allowance would ensure that their living conditions are decent.

Meanwhile, Philippine officials have reiterated their call to provide mandatory food allowance to Filipino domestic helpers in Hong Kong.

A report submitted by the Philippine Consulate to Manila said it made the request during the July 19 Technical Working Group meeting with Hong Kong officials. The PCG said helpers have been complaining that they were not given enough food by their employers or were made to eat leftover food of their wards.

"(The PCG) added that a food allowance will help an FDH to have sufficient nutritional intake, resulting in better efficiency and effectiveness in executing household chores," the report said.

However, the LD said granting of food allowance is decided on a "case-to-case basis".

"Culture and religion are the main considerations by employers on giving the monthly food stipend. Some employers do not cook at home and thus provide monetary food allowance," the LD said.

Sought for comment by Hong Kong News, the LD also said they continued to listen to the concerns of FDWs.

"As in the past, the Labour Department will meet with foreign domestic helper (FDH) groups and employers groups to listen to their views on the review of the Minimum Allowable Wage (MAW) and food allowance, as well as other matters of mutual interests.

"Indeed, the department will meet with the stakeholders from time to time to gauge their views on matters pertaining to employment of FDHs," the LD said.

Taguiwalo out of Duterte cabinet

By Maia Lopez

PRESIDENT Rodrigo Duterte had to let go of Judy Taguiwalo as head of the Department of Social Welfare and Development after the powerful Commission on Appointments rejected her nomination.

The President was also forced to accept the resignation of Customs commissioner Nicanor Faeldon amid mounting pressure from lawmakers and anti-crime groups for his replacement over his failure to stop the entry of P6.4-billion worth of shabu from China. Taguiwalo is the third Cabinet official appointed by Duterte to be rejected by the CA, after Perfecto Yasay Jr. as Foreign Affairs Secretary and Gina Lopez as Environment Secretary. Duterte said it was not possible for him to interfere with the job of the bicameral commission.

"That is the job of Congress as part of the checks and balances of government. We cannot do anything if they rejected (Taguiwalo)," he said.

Taguiwalo, for her part, lamented that the President did not keep faith in her.

"Mr. President, I kept faith in you. I am saddened, because I don't think you kept faith in me at the end," she said.

"But still, thank you for allowing me to serve the Filipino people as a member of your Cabinet, for showing the Filipino people that leftists can serve the government with integrity, with honesty, with empathy, without corruption, and with love for country," Taguiwalo added.

Meanwhile, the President said he will appoint former Philippine Drug Enforcement Agency director-general Isidro La-peña as Faeldon's replacement.

Drugs war death toll rises

By Maia Lopez

AT least 81 drug suspects were killed, including a 17-year-old Grade 11 student, in a span of four days across Bulacan, Manila and Camanava in a series of deadly raids as part of the government's bloody war on drugs.

At least 32 suspects were killed in Bulacan, 25 in Manila, and 24 across Caloocan, Malabon, Navotas, and Valenzuela.

Among those killed in the drug sweep is 17-year old Kian Loyd Delos Santos, whom the police accused of being a drug runner even if he was not included in any drug watch list.

Caloocan policemen insisted that Delos Santos fired at them while he was being apprehended, prompting them to shoot back.

Prior to Delos Santos' death, President Rodrigo Duterte extolled the policemen in Bulacan for killing 32 drug suspects, calling it a "good" development.

"If you kill 32 more every day, that might solve what ails our country," the President said.

But the outrage over the killing of the student made the President issue a stern warning to policemen to stop committing abuses in the name of the government's anti-narcotics drives.

"I'm not justifying the Caloocan incident. That is really bad. That wasn't in the performance of their duty. Do not commit a crime," the President said.

"You are not allowed to shoot a person who is kneeling down, begging for his life. That is murder," Duterte said, adding that policemen involved in criminal acts "should get killed."

Philippine National Police chief Ronald dela Rosa also told his men to stop planting evidence on drug suspects after a crime lab report showed Delos Santos had not fired a gun before he was shot dead by Caloocan City cops on Aug. 16.

"Avoid planting drugs on the suspect because you want them out of the drug business," Dela Rosa said.

Witnesses have disputed the police version of events while a CCTV footage showing two policemen dragging Delos Santos from one alley to another, where he was killed, also contradicted their story.

Two of the policemen involved admitted that they indeed dragged Delos Santos as seen on the CCTV footage.

meron kang 500MB data usage kada araw. Service valid hanggang 23:59 mula sa subscription date. Kapag kulang sayo ang 500MB o nagamit mo na lahat agad, pwede ka mag-subscribe muli basta press lang ang code at magbayad muli. Kapag ikaw ay hindi gumagamit ng data plan, ang babayaran mo sa ay $60 per day. Kapag ikaw ay naka 4G data plan 3.6Mbps sa Hong Kong, ganito rin ang speed mo sa Macau. Kung ikaw ay naka 3G data plan, ang speed mo ay hanggang 384 kbps. Kung ikaw ay hindi naka subscribe sa kahit anong data plan sa Hong Kong at mag data roaming sa Macau, ang speed mo ay 3.6Mbps naman.

Malaysia defers execution of Filipino

By Maia Lopez

MALAYSIAN authorities postponed a scheduled execution of a Filipino convicted of murder in Sabah following appeals from the Philippine government.

Ejah Bin Jaafar, a Filipino overseas worker who was supposed to be executed on August 18, was given a temporary reprieve by Sabah Governor Panglima Haji Juhad Haji Mahiruddin. The Governor decided to refer Jaafar's case back to the Sabah Pardons Board for review.

"We would like to thank the Governor of Sabah for responding to the repeated appeals of the Philippine government on behalf of the family of Mr. Jaafar," Foreign Affairs Secretary Alan Peter Cayetano said.

The Sabah Pardons Board is scheduled to meet in December to review the Filipino's case and decide whether to reduce the sentence to life imprisonment or proceed with the execution.

"The decision of the board will be final and executory without any further possibility of appeal," the DFA said.

Pinoy boy among dead in Barcelona attack

A seven-year-old Filipino boy earlier reported missing in Barcelona turned out to be among the 14 fatalities in a terrorist attack that seriously injured his mother and more than 100 others, the Department of Foreign Affairs said.

"It pains us to break the sad news to our kababayans that we lost one of our own in the recent violence unleashed by extremists against the innocent in Barcelona," Foreign Affairs Secretary Alan Cayetano said. "We join the loved ones of our little brother in mourning his passing and in praying for the eternal repose of his soul," he added.

Cayetano directed Foreign Undersecretary for Migrant Workers Affairs Sarah Lou Arriola to extend all possible assistance to the family of the deceased and to other Filipino victims of the terror attack.

According to Chargé d'Affaires Emmanuel Fernandez, the Philippine Embassy in Madrid was informed of the boy's demise by his family after his father identified his remains.

He said the victim's 43-year-old mother remained in the intensive care unit of a local hospital after undergoing surgery for fractures in both legs and one arm.

Two other Filipinos based in Italy were among those injured when a van plowed through crowds gathered at the Las Ramblas tourist district.

Also injured in the attack were four Irish citizens of Filipino descent.

Nangutang para sa OJT subalit...

By Imelda Mae Bustineta

Isa sa dahilan ng mga OFW kung bakit naiisipan mangibang bansa at magtiis ay ang kagustuhang mapagtapos ang mga anak ng pag-aaral.

Si Myra, 43, may asawa at apat na anak, at taga Masbate ay nagsikap makatapos ng pag-aaral at nakapagtrabaho naman pero nang mag-asawa at magkaroon ng mga anak ay hindi na sapat ang kinikita kahit na pagsamahin pa ang sahod nilang mag-asawa. Naisipan niyang mangibang bansa upang mamasukan bilang kasambahay.

Hindi niya namalayan ang paglipas ng panahon at napagtapos na niya ang panganay sa kolehiyo at ang pangalawa ay magtatapos na rin. Sa US ang kompanyang pagsasanayan na OJT sa loob ng tatlong buwan kaya napilitan si Myra umutang ng malaki. Ayos lang daw at baka sakaling magustuhan ng kompanya ang performance ay i-hire ang anak niya. Subalit nang matapos ang OJT ay hindi dumating sa bahay ang anak ni Myra. Ang nobyo pala ang sumundo at doon muna tumuloy. Galit na galit ang kuya nang mabalitaan at ipinarating sa ina dahil takot ipaalam sa ama.

Halos himatayin si Myra sa galit at pagkadismaya. Nagpapakahirap daw siya at umutang pa para sa anak.

Prime Visa Credit Card and Prime Gems Mobile App by PrimeCredit

LEADING finance company PrimeCredit launched two new exciting projects on August 20.

One is a credit card especially for migrant workers, and the second is a mobile app.

"This Visa credit card from PrimeCredit is the first credit card issued exclusively for FDWs in Hong Kong. Basically, with a Prime Visa Credit Card, the card holder can make purchases at supermarkets, shops in the shopping center comfortably," said Louise Vas, Marketing Manager from PrimeCredit on the launching of the credit card.

According to Vas, the credit card can also be used for online transactions such as airline ticket purchasing, online shopping, and more.

In addition, the Visa credit card from PrimeCredit can also be used to get an emergency cash advance for emergency needs. The holder of the credit card can withdraw cash in advance without having to go to PrimeCredit branch offices and submit requirements again.

Subject to existing credit limits, credit card holders can withdraw cash at any ATM with VISA PLUS logo, or even at PrimeCredit branches.

To avail of the Prime Visa Credit Card, a foreign domestic worker must have been continuously employed for five years with the same employer, and the expiration date of the contract should not be less than six months.

The PrimeCredit Visa credit card holder can make payments at the nearest PrimeCredit branch or at 7 Eleven, by showing the bill statement that would be available via the Prime Gems Mobile App.

Prime Credit will not mail the credit card statement to protect the privacy of Prime Visa Credit Card holder.

"As this is the first time that a credit card is issued to FDWs in Hong Kong, PrimeCredit has received many questions regarding what is a credit card, how to use it and others. We are present to assist them to understand the Prime Visa Credit Card," Vas said.

However, she added that the important thing is for Prime Visa Credit Card holders to spend what they can only afford.

"We always stress to only borrow what you can afford," Vas said.

For hotline service, credit card holders can contact the number on the card from Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. - 5 p.m., and Saturday, 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. FDWs can also go to nearest PrimeCredit branch for inquiries.

The Prime Gems Mobile App is now available for free at the App Store (for IOS device) and Google Play Store (for Android device).

Justice!

WE are horrified by the dastardly killing of Kian Loyd Delos Santos.

It was clear from the CCTV footage that the teenager was alive when two policemen accosted him. No less than President Duterte has said that what the Caloocan policemen did to the 17-year-old teenager was not in the performance of their duty. The policemen said it was not Kian they were escorting but a police informant.

"I'm not sure it was Kian but from the looks of it, it ain't that way. That is not performance of duty," Mr. Duterte said.

The President said he would only come to the aid of policemen who killed drug suspects while performing their duty.

Delos Santos was killed by Caloocan City police officers on Aug. 16. The police portrayed the Grade 12 student as a drug runner who was killed after he fired at the arresting officers.

"Right after, I called up (Philippine National Police chief Director General) (Ronald) Bato (Dela Rosa) and I said, "You detain (those policemen) for murder," Mr. Duterte said.

It's a good thing the President has also promised to Kian's parents that there would be an impartial investigation into his death. We hope that Kian's death would put a stop to the extra-judicial killings in the war against drugs.

Health Alert

HFMD

HAND, Foot and Mouth Disease (HFMD) is a common disease in children caused by enteroviruses such as coxsackieviruses and enterovirus 71 (EV71). The EV71 infection is of particular concern as it more likely associates with severe outcomes and even death.

The disease is mostly self-limiting and resolves in 7 – 10 days. It usually begins with fever, poor appetite, tiredness and sore throat. Painful sores which begin as small red spots with blister, develop in the mouth after fever. They may then become ulcers. There may also be skin rash on palms and soles that is non-itchy and some with blisters. It may also appear on the buttocks and/or genitalia. A person with HFMD may not have symptoms, or may have only rash or mouth ulcers. The disease is most contagious during the first week of the illness and the viruses can be found in stool for weeks.

The disease mainly spreads by contact with an infected person's nose or throat discharges, saliva, fluid from vesicles or stool, or after touching contaminated objects. The incubation period of HFMD is about 3 – 7 days.

There is no specific drug treatment for HFMD. Patients should drink plenty of water and take adequate rest, and may receive symptomatic treatment to reduce fever and pain from oral ulcers. Sick children should stay away from school or gatherings till all vesicles have dried up to avoid spreading the disease. If infection is caused by EV71, the patient is advised to stay at home for two more weeks after recovery from the disease (i.e. fever and rash have subsided, and vesicles have dried).

Parents should monitor the child's condition closely and seek medical advice immediately if there is persistent high fever, decrease in alertness or deterioration in general condition.

There is no effective vaccine at the moment. Good personal and environmental hygiene are the mainstay of prevention. Wash hands with liquid soap and water especially before touching nose and mouth; before eating or handling food; after touching blister; after using the toilet; after changing diapers or handling soiled articles; and when hands are contaminated by respiratory secretions e.g. after coughing or sneezing. Cover nose and mouth with tissue paper when coughing or sneezing. Do not share towels and other personal items. Regularly clean and disinfect frequently touched surfaces such as furniture and toys.

Gusto mong tumaas ang sahod mo?

IKAW man ay baguhan dito sa Hong Kong o beterano na sa paghahanap-buhay dito, tiyak ako na aprub para sa iyo na tumaas ang sahod mo.

Hindi ka naman pumunta rito para baratin lang ang oras at pagod mo sa pagtatrabaho sa amo, hindi ba? At sa taun-taong pagtaas ng presyo ng bilihin – sa Pilipinas man o sa Hong Kong – laging kapos ang sweldo sa pangangailangan ng pamilya. Hindi rin tumagal ang pagkatuwa ng ilang mga kababayan natin sa patuloy na pagtaas ng palitan ng HK dollar sa piso. Kung dati ay inakala nila na dumadami ang naipapadala nilang pera sa pamilya, unti-unti nilang naunawaan na mali pala. Anumang pagdami ng piso ay binabawi naman ng pagtaas ng halaga ng bilihin. Sumatotal, kulang pa rin ang remittance natin.

Sa kasalukuyan, ang layo-layo ng tina-tanggap na sweldo sa tinatawag na cost of living sa Hong Kong. Sa komputasyon ng mga lokal na unyon kailangan na ng HK$40 kada oras ng trabaho para mabuhay sa Hong Kong. At kung tanggalin nga ang porsiyento ng live-in na gastusin (mula sa mismong statistics ng HK government), ang dapat nga na matira ay HK$5,500 na dapat na maging minimum wage ng mga FDWs, ayon sa Asian Migrants Coordinating Body (AMCB).

Kung food allowance naman ang titingnan, napakababa ng HK$1,037 kada buwan. Pumapatak lang ito na HK$35 kada araw! Ano ang makakain mo sa agahan, tanghalian at hapunan na kakasya ang halagang ito? Ang hinihingi ng AMCB para sa mga FDWs ay hindi bababa sa HK$2,500 o HK$83 kada araw na food allowance. Sa mga kahilingan na ito ay makikita na kaagad na may double standard sa Hong Kong. Masasabi pa nga na dikriminasyon ito. Ang standard na ibinibigay sa mga FDWs ay napakababa kung ikukumpara sa iba.

Kung kayat napakahalaga ng papel ng kilusan ng migrante sa Hong Kong na walang tigil at patuloy na nagtatanggol at nagtataguyod sa interes ng mga FDWs dito. Taun-taon na lang ay hindi sila nagsasawa na mag-dialogue, mag-research, mag-petisyon at mag-rally para ilaban ito. Bawat rally nila ay may katapat na pagtaas ng sahod natin. Di ba mainam na mapasalamatan sila dahil anumang ginagawa nila ay pinakikinabangan ng lahat – kahit pa yaong mga hindi naniniwala sa paglaban o nangungutya pa sa nga nagra-rally? Mas maganda pa nga kung sumama sa mga organisasyon na ito.

Panahon na upang lumahok at makiisa ka. Huwag lang umasa sa pagkilos ng iba.

Dear Editor

Dear Editor,

Magandang araw po sa inyo Hong Kong News.

Sana po ang sulat kong ito ay maging daan upang ang ating mga kababayan ay maging maingat kapag bumibili ng phone o kaya electronic gadget.

Dahil may kalumagan na ang gamit kong cell phone, naisipan kong bumili ng bago sa Central.

As usual, nag window shopping at nagtanong tanong muna sa ilang mga shops na may pagkakaiba sa presyuhan kahit parehong tatak.

Finally, nakabili ako ng Samsung Galaxy S5 neo doon sa Worldwide Plaza, dahil yung sales staff ay Pinay.

Kilalang brand at original sabi nya. Stylish at maganda ang inilabas nyang unit kaya kinuha ko na.

Binigyan pa nga ako ng special discount. Tingin ko pa lang sa box, feeling 'wow' na ang dating sa akin. Mas madali at mabilis na ang aking komunikasyon sa mga barkada at pamilya ko sa 'Pinas.

So pag uwi ko sa bahay, naayos ko naman ang setting up.

After a week, napansin ko na humina ang volume kahit ito ay nasa maximum na.

Nakita ko din na ang camera ay hindi rin masyadong malinaw at parang konting improvement lang kung ikumpara ko sa lumang phone ko.

Nagagamit ko naman sa regular na tawagan pero parang hindi nag level up sa expectation ko.

Sa aking pag-iimbestiga, napagalaman ko na iba iba yung serial number ng phone.

Ano po kaya ang dapat kung gawin?

Salamat po,

Joy Valdez – Sai Ying Pun

Arci, nagparetoke?

By Cristy Kasilag

USAP-USAPAN ngayon ang “bagong” Arci Munoz.

Tila may pagbabago sa mukha ng aktres at singer na si Arci Munoz, na ang tunay na pangalan ay Ramona Cecilia Datuin Munoz.

Sa isang out of town na show napansin ng ilang tao na tila may pagbabago sa kanyang ilong at mga labi.

Nagpunta sa Tuguegarao ang 28-anyos na aktres para sa Afi Festival at ang mada-las mangyari ay may mga taga-hangang nagpalitrato kasama niya. Ito ay pinaun-lakan naman ng aktres. Base sa mga litra-to, tila may pagkakaiba ang kanyang ilong na tila lalo itong tumangos; samantala ang kanyang mga labi ay mas naging malaki.

Pinagkumpara ng ilan ang mga dating litrato ni Arci nung siya ay sumali pa sa Starstruck at mga naunang nagawang pelikula sa itsura niya ngayon.

Hindi nagustuhan ng ilan ang mga pag-babago sa kanyang mukha. Ang sabi pa nga ng ilan ay parang nag mukhang Michael Jackson, ang King of Pop, ang kanyang itsura.

Kaagad na na naghinala ang iba na nagpa cosmetic surgery ang magandang aktres.

Hindi sinagot ni Arci ng direktso ang mga haka-haka na siya ay nagpa-cosmetic surgery. Pero nagpaliwanag siya na minsan daw ay nilalagpasan niya ang pag lalagay ng lipstick sa kanyang mga labi para lalo itong lumaki.

Ngunit hindi din niya direktso na tinanggi ang mga paratang ng ilan na siya ay nagparetoke ng mukha.

isusunod ang baby project

By Cristy Kasilag

MAY balak magpahinga sa showbiz ang artista, host and painter cum designer na si Heart Evangelista para bigyan ang isang project—ang kanilang baby project ng kanyang asawa na si Senator Francis “Chiz” Escudero.

Sa edad na 47, ay labing-limang taon ang agwat ni Chiz sa misis niyang si Heart.

Tatapusin lang ng 32-anyos na si Heart ang kanyang bagong teleserye sa GMA na “My Korean Jagiya” kung saan makakatambal niya ang half-Korean actor na si Alexander Lee Eusebio.

Sa isang press conference ay nagbitaw ng salita si Heart na maaring ang “My Korean Jagiya” ang huling proyekto na gagawin niya pang primetime dahil balak niyang pagtuunan ng pansin ang plano nilang mag asawa na magka baby.

Ipalalabas ang “My Korean Jagiya” simula ika-21 ng Agosto.

Nuong ika-15 ng buwan ng Pebrero taong 2015 pa kinasal sina Heart at Senator Chiz sa isang engrandeng kasal sa Balesin Island na parte ng Quezon Province pero kinailangan nilang isantabi ang pagkakaroon ng anak dahil sumabak sa labanan pang bise presidente si Chiz nuong Mayo 2016.

Natalo si Chiz ni Ma. Leonor “Leni” Robredo.

Noong panahong iyon ay nagkaroon ng bonding time si Heart sa dalawang anak ni Sen. Chiz sa dati nitong misis na si Christine Elizabeth Flores.

Nagkaroon din si Heart ng pagkakataon na subukan at tutukan ang iba pa niyang talento tulad ng pagpinta. Naglabas siya at ang designer na si Mark Bumgarner ng hand-painted couture. Nag-hand paint din siya sa mga Hermes brand na mga bags.

Solenn, Betong in videoke show

SOLENN at BETONG

SOLENN Heussaff and Betong Sumaya sing their hearts out in GMA Network's All-Star Videoke

Brace for a more fun-filled Sunday night as GMA Network brings back to Filipino homes All-Star Videoke with twice the fun and twice the excitement, beginning Sept. 3.

The grand return of the musical game show is hosted by the two of the Network's versatile artists: multi-talented actress and TV host Solenn Heussaff and funny comedian Betong Sumaya.

Solenn revealed that because of her love for music and singing, she is more enthusiastic for the show to begin.

"Ito talaga yung first hosting gig ko sa GMA Entertainment so iba yung feeling kasi sobrang bongga yung preparations sa lahat. Nandun yung pressure but the excitement is there for me kasi I really like music and singing so dito magagawa ko talaga yun," the Kapuso actress said.

On the other hand, Betong shared how grateful he is to finally be part of the program that has become one of the Filipino viewers' favorite TV programs.

"Natutuwa ako kasi kami ni Solenn yung pinagkatiwalaan ng GMA dito sa napakalaking project na ito. As we all know, inaabangan talaga ito ng viewers noon, di ba? Sobra yung excitement ko kasi following the footsteps of Allan K., Jaya and Arnell Ignacio, ang laki ng shoes to fill in so I feel blessed and challenged at the same time," he said.

The game features six celebrity contestants or Videoke stars vying to outwit one another by filling in the missing words on a song in a videoke-type of presentation.

Horoscope

Capricorn
 December 22 to January 19
 Hindi normal sa iyo ang maging very serious. Dahil dito kailangan mong pagsikapang maging pormal upang mabago ang imahe mo sa mga nakatataas sa iyo lalo na sa trabaho.

Aquarius
 January 20 to February 18
 May nangyayari sa bahay na dapat mong bigyang-pansin. Maaring ito ay isang proyekto o may dapat na iayos na pisikal sa kusina, banyo o pagtutubero.

Pisces
 February 19 to March 20
 Ituloy mo ang paghahanap ng paraan upang mapabuti ang lahat ng bagay sa paligid mo. Bukod sa material na aayusin, baka kailangan ang pagpapabuti sa daloy ng komunikasyon.

Aries
 March 21 to April 19
 Mapaglaro at malakas na imahinasyon ang iiral sa iyo sa mga darating na araw. Ok lang pero maging practical ka at bigyan mo rin ng pansin ang pera at ari-arian.

Taurus
 April 20 to May 20
 Mayroon kang matibay na opinion tungkol sa pulitika, relihiyon at mga isyu sa lahi at ang iyong mga salita ay magiging matamis at makatwiran. Ngunit may mga kokontra pa rin sa paniniwala mo.

Gemini
 May 21 to June 20
 Magana kang makipag-usap sa iba, lalo na tungkol sa pananalapi at kung paano aalagaan ang puhunan nila. Lagi kang nasa likod ng eksena kaya lalong pinapahalagahan nila ang kaalaman mo.

Cancer
 June 21 to July 22
 May magbibigay sa iyo ng inspirasyon at makikita mo ang ilang paraan upang baguhin ang iyong mga layunin sa hinaharap. Ito'y para sa kabutihan ng lahat at ikatatahimik ng iyong damdamin.

Leo
 July 23 to August 22
 Lista ka at hindi mahiyain. Iniisip ng mga tao na ikaw ay may misyon, may potensyal ka sa pananalapi at negosyo.

Virgo
 August 23 to September 22
 Sundin mo ang pagnanasang gumawa ng iba't ibang bagay. Tuklasin mo ang mga bagong ideyang magbibigay sa iyo ng mas mahusay na pang-unawa sa mundo.

Libra
 September 23 to October 22
 Ikaw ay natural na lider at nirepato nila ang iyong opinion. May kaalaman ka tungkol sa organisasyon at kung paano gastusin ang pera.

Scorpio
 October 23 to November 21
 Maging matulungin sa iba dahil babalik sa iyo ng maraming ulit ang kabutihang gagawin. May makakainisan ka na hindi mo maipaliwanag ang dahilan.

Sagittarius
 November 22 to December 21
 Ihanda ang sarili sa mas maraming trabaho. Ang ilan sa inyo ay maglalakbay, huwag mabahala sa financial support at magiging maayos ang lahat.

What's Cooking?

By Chef Jay Dator

A curry dish is flavorful and savory. It may seem complicated to cook, but this Green Pork Curry Fillet is worth the effort.

Ingredients:
 500 g. pork fillet cut into 2 cm.
 100 g. green curry paste
 1 tbsp. olive oil
 1 tbsp. fish sauce
 2 40 g. coconut cream
 1 can coconut milk

¼ cup chopped coriander leaves
 1 stalk lemon grass chopped
 1 tbsp. fresh lime juice

Procedure:
 1. Heat the oil in a wok high heat. Add the pork and stir fry for 2 minutes or until browned. Add chopped lemon grass, coriander leaves.
 2. Mix with curry paste, coconut milk, coconut cream until well blended.

3. Add in fish sauce and fresh lime juice and stir to combine.
 4. Divide the curry among serving bowls sprinkle with coriander and serve with steamed.
